

Lathrop GPM's Denver office – located in the newly built Block 162 – is designed to meet the growing office's needs and adapt to the changing work environment. It was the first of the firm's offices to incorporate a hybrid of open seating and private, assigned workspaces. Features include sustainable, energy-efficient, technology-forward and flexible design; health, safety, and wellness features; unrivaled transit and vehicle accessibility, as well as spectacular Front Range views. The Denver team counsels clients in both litigation and transactional matters. Focus areas include natural resource law, trust and estate litigation, wealth strategies, mergers and acquisitions, construction, real estate and employment. Our attorneys have been rated by Chambers USA as "Leading Lawyers" in Colorado Corporate/M&A and listed among The Best Lawyers in America.

Parking is located in the building garage. Visitors enter the secure parking garage via entry on either 15th Street or Welton Street. Let us know if you've parked in the building garage and we'll validate your parking.
