Alexander Porter is a seasoned attorney providing counsel to clients within the firm’s Financial Services practice group. Alex has extensive experience representing secured lenders and financial institutions on matters of breach of contract, commercial foreclosures, bankruptcy, fraudulent transfer and post-judgment proceedings in both state and federal court.

With knowledge and experience in drafting initial pleadings, client affidavits, dispositive motions and post-trial motions, as well as exchanging written discovery on behalf of companies and secured lenders of all sizes, Alex will stop at nothing to help clients achieve their desired outcomes. His experience includes representing clients at both the trial and appellate levels. Alex is also a certified White Belt in Legal Lean Sigma.

Prior to joining Lathrop GPM, Alex served as an associate with another Chicago-area law firm, as well as an in-house staff attorney for a legal financial company.
